The following Bill which was introduced in the Legislative Assembly of Goa on 30-7-1999 is hereby published for general information in pursuance of the provisions of Rule-138 of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business of the Legislative Assembly.

The Goa Evacuee Property (Protection of Dwelling Houses) Bill, 1999

(Bill No. 9 of 1999)

BILL

to give protection to the dwelling houses existing on properties vested in the Custodian of Evacuee property.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Goa in the Fiftieth Year of the Republic of India as follows:—

1. Short title and Commencement.— (1) This Act may be called the Goa Evacuee Property (Protection of Dwelling Houses) Act, 1999.

(2) It shall come into force at once.

2. Definitions.— The words and expressions used in this Act shall have the same meaning as are assigned to them in the Goa, Daman and Diu Evacuee Property Act, 1964 (Act 6 of 1964 and the Goa, Daman and Diu Mundkars (Protection from Eviction) Act, 1975 (Act 1 of 1976).

3. Protection to the dwelling house.— Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or judgement or decree or order of any competent Court or authority, dwelling houses existing on the 1st day of January, 1999 on any evacuee property, whether construction thereof had been undertaken with the permission of the Custodian or not, shall be deemed to have been so constructed with the permission of the Custodian and no demolition of such dwelling house shall be taken up by any person or authority.

4. Levy of tax.— The local authority having jurisdiction over the evacuee property where a dwelling house as is referred to in section 3 is situated, shall be entitled to levy and collect all taxes and other levies as are made applicable to other such construction from the date stipulated in section 3, if such a dwelling house was not earlier assessed for such tax or levy.

Statement of Objects and Reasons

A number of dwelling houses are existing on the properties which have vested in the Custodian of Evacuee Property. Of late the Custodian has released a huge evacuee property situated at Mayem to its original owners. There is an apprehension that many dwelling houses existing for a number of years may be demolished by the original owners. Further, the provisions of the Goa, Daman and Diu Mundkars (Protection from Eviction) Act, 1975 (Act 1 of 1976) was made applicable to the Evacuee Properties only in the year 1995. This being so, many persons having dwelling houses on evacuee properties are yet to be declared as mundkars and given the protection. The present Bill seeks to safe guard the dwelling houses from demolition merely on the ground that it had been undertaken without the permission of the Custodian.

Financial Memorandum

No financial implications are involved in this Bill.
